Psalm 22- with commentary by Fr. Leo Haydock

The Lord is my Shepherd (who feeds, guides and governs souls),
I shall want nothing.

He hath set me in a place of pasture (His Catholic Church, where we can rest from the heat of the day)

He hath brought me up, on the water of refreshment: (Baptism and the vitalizing truths of salvation)

He hath converted my soul. (by His grace and brought me back from my wanderings amongst idolaters to the path of His Law)

He hath lead me on the paths of justice, for His name's sake.
(God must begin and carry on the work of our conversion and we must co-operate)

For though I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil (the greatest temptations and dangers give no alarm to those who live mindful of God's protection)

Thy rod and thy staff, they have comforted me. (the rod keeps enemies at a distance and by timely corrections mercifully brings back the wandering sheep)

Thou hast prepared a table before me, against them that afflict me. (Christ Himself has prepared the table of the Holy Eucharist and Sacred Scriptures to nourish our souls against our spiritual adversaries who would strip us and keep us away)

Thou hast anointed my head with oil; (the Chrism used in Confirmation, Holy Orders and Baptism, and the Oil of the Sick used in Extreme Unction)

And my chalice which inebriateth me, how goodly it is! (the peace and joy given by Mass and Holy Communion is not as the world gives, passing, but eternal)

And Thy mercy will follow me all the days of my life. (Continual and final perseverance is a special grace of God, given to those who worthily partake of God's table)

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord, unto length of days. (Only those who remain in the House of God, His Church on earth, can expect Eternal Happiness).
