The Best Dispositions for a Departing Soul

Several of the Fathers of the desert, having assembled together, conferred on the best manner of preparing for the last passage. The last that spoke, said, that he believed a humble and loving conformity to the divine will was most conformable to the spirit of our dying Savior. And in truth this disposition includes every other: it perfects contrition, disposes the soul to receive the sacraments worthily; it tends to strengthen our faith, support our hope, and perfect our charity. This disposition is comprised in our dying Savior's own words, which we should appropriate: Father~a title of love~into Thy hands I commend~an act of resignation~my spirit~that is my soul, my life, and all that I am. I commend my spirit into those divine hands, which, I know by faith, are filled with mercies and which are ever ready to apply the merits of my Jesus to my soul. After we have received the Viaticum and Extreme Unction, the securest and best disposition is that of an entire abandonment of ourselves to God, both for the time of death, and after death; for time and eternity, with only one desire~that God may glorify Himself in us, in whatever way He pleases.

The faithful who at any time in their lives, from a sincere spirit of love of God and with at least a contrite heart, express their intention of accepting calmly and gladly from the hand of God whatsoever manner of death it may please Him to send them, together with all its pain, anguish and suffering, may gain: An indulgence of 7 years; A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if they have devoutly made such an act at least once in their lifetime, after having fulfilled the usual conditions. Dearly Beloved, do not hesitate to fulfill these easy conditions by which you insure for yourself in the days of your health the great grace of a plenary indulgence in the hour of death, provided you die in the state of sanctifying grace.

Prayer: My Lord God, even now, resignedly and willingly, I accept at Your hand, with all its anxieties, pains and sufferings, whatever kind of death it shall please You to be mine. Amen

Prayer for a Holy Death

Divine Jesus, Incarnate Son of God, Who for our salvation didst vouchsafe to be born in a stable, to pass Thy life in poverty, trials, and misery, and to die amid the sufferings of the Cross, I entreat Thee in the hour of my death, say to Thy divine Father: "Father, forgive him"; say to Thy beloved Mother: "Behold thy son"; say to my soul: "This day thou shalt be with Me in paradise." My God, my God, forsake me not in that hour. "I thirst": truly, my God, my soul thirsts after Thee, Who art the fountain of living waters. My life passes like a shadow; yet a little while and all will be consummated. Wherefore, O my adorable Savior, from this moment, for all eternity, "Into Thy hands I commend my spirit." Lord Jesus, receive my soul. Amen. (Indulgence of 300 days, every time.~Pius IX, June 10, 1836)
