Excerpts from Quas Primas by Pope Pius XI

The manifold evils in the world are due to the fact that the majority of men have thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law out of their lives, either in private affairs or in politics. As long as individuals and states refused to submit to the rule of our Savior, there will be no really hopeful prospect of a lasting peace among nations. Men must look for the peace of Christ in the Kingdom of Christ, that is, in Christ and his Church, the one Source of Salvation. Men will be reminded that the Church has a natural and inalienable right to perfect freedom and immunity from the power of the state. Nations will be reminded by the annual celebration of this feast that not only private individuals but also rulers and princes are bound to give public honor and obedience to Christ. It will call to their minds the thought of the last judgment, wherein Christ, who has been cast out of public life, despised, neglected and ignored, will most severely avenge these insults; for his kingly dignity demands that the State should take account of the commandments of God and of Christian principles, both in making laws and in administering justice, and also in providing for the young a sound moral education. The faithful, moreover, by meditating upon these truths, will gain much strength and courage, enabling them to form their lives after the true Christian ideal. If to Christ our Lord is given all power in heaven and on earth; if all men, purchased by his precious blood, are subjected to his dominion, it must be clear that not one of our faculties is exempt from his empire. He must reign in our minds, which should assent with perfect submission and firm belief to revealed truths and to the doctrines of Christ. He must reign in our wills, which should obey the laws and precepts of God. He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to him alone. He must reign in our bodies and in our members, which should serve as instruments for the interior sanctification of our souls. These truths, meditated on, prove a powerful incentive to perfection. It is Our fervent desire that those who are without the fold may seek after and accept the sweet yoke of Christ, and that we, who by the mercy of God are of the household of the faith, may bear that yoke, not as a burden but with joy, with love, with devotion; that having lived our lives in accordance with the laws of God's kingdom, we may receive full measure of good fruit, and counted by Christ good and faithful servants, we may be rendered partakers of eternal bliss and glory with him in his heavenly kingdom.
